

Contact: Libby Roof, Coordinator, Communications
Phone 803-821-1151, Fax 821-1156, Mobile 360-1836

Media Advisory

Tuesday, September 1, 2009

New Leadership 21 class builds 21st century global leaders
Class begins with focus on servant leadership/community service

When: Tuesday, Sept. 8, 2009, 12:12 P.M.

Where: Lexington High School

What: On September 8th, more than 60 community leaders, who have defined their success by their servant leadership/community service, will speak to Lexington County School District One ninth-grade students taking the Leadership 21 class. The presenters will discuss their experiences with community service, how community service has benefited them and ways students can become servant-leaders.

Media can observe a Leadership 21 class at Lexington High School on September 8th. The class begins at 12:12 P.M.

Lexington One Superintendent Karen Woodward will speak to the students about servant leadership/community service.

A semester long, district-required course, Leadership 21 provides the foundation for ninth-graders to become 21st century global leaders and citizens through a comprehensive study of leadership, presentation skills, career exploration, and health, wellness and fitness education. The course teaches life and learning skills, such as time and project management, use of technology, financial literacy and media/cyber literacy.

# #