

Contact: Sandy Taylor, Public Relations Correspondent
Telephone 803-821-3000, Fax 821-3003

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tuesday, October 27, 2009

LTC receives GreenSTEM Initiative Grant

LEXINGTON, S.C. — The Lexington Technology Center recently received a GreenSTEM Initiative Grant totaling $45,000.

The GreenSTEM Initiative is an innovative high school course focused on green technologies. It combines science, technology, engineering and mathematics teaching with hands-on student projects using wind energy, solar power and fuel cells.

The funds will help LTC students develop skills to tackle 21st century environmental problems.

#

Lexington County School District One Board of Trustees and Superintendent Dr. Karen Woodward recognize Lexington Technology Center Director Ken Lake for helping LTC to receive a GreenSTEM Initiative Grant worth $45,000.