

Contact: Renee Padgett, Public Relations Correspondent
Phone 803-821-1400, Fax 821-1403

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friday, November 6, 2009

GPS students create candy sculpture

GILBERT, S.C. — Gilbert Primary School second-grade students created a complex candy farm house to enter in the EdVenture Children's Museum Halloween Candy Sculpture Contest. Pixie Stix served as walls. Bottle Caps shingled the roof. Smarties made colorful flowers.

The book, "Georgia Farm" by Mattie Lou O'Kelley, inspired the GPS students' entry. The theme for the contest was America the Beautiful.

#

Gilbert Primary School students Marisol Martinez, Tristan Jonas, Shelby Hanna, Art Teacher Angie Kelly-Lewis, Jessica Theiszmann and Evan Myrick show off their design for EdVenture's Halloween Candy Sculpture Contest.