Election Process

The election process will contain three parts and be judged on a 100-point scoring scale.

Application (34 points)

- Students running for officer positions will complete an online packet linked on the CSMS website. The packet will contain–
 - A welcome letter and position selection that must be signed by both the student and a parent/guardian.
 - A series of questions to be answered thoroughly.
 - A letter of intent to the election committee detailing what your year in office will look like and what you intend to accomplish.
 - Two teacher recommendation forms.
- Students will be scored 34 points on the application packet: one point for turning the application in completed and on time, and up to 33 points for the packet responses.

Interview (33 points)

- Students will sign up for 20-minute interview slots at the time they turn in their application packet.
- During the interview, students should be able to discuss their questionnaire responses and their letter of intent.
- The interview panel will consist of the StuCo advisors, one general education teacher, and a school administrator.

Election (33 points)

- Students will have four days to campaign prior to the election.
 - Students can hang flyers in the hallway as long as they have been approved by StuCo advisors beforehand. Any flyers found that were not approved will be taken down.
 - Students will record a speech to be shared to the student body for viewing.
 - All campaign materials must be removed from the hallways by the end of the day on election day.
- The student body will vote for positions during grade-level lunches.
- Students will be given a point value up to 33 points based on the percentage of votes they receive during the election.
 - Example: A student receives 80% of the student body votes. That percentage is multiplied by 33 total possible points. $80\% \text{ of votes} = 80\% \times 33 \text{ points} = 27 \text{ points}$

Appointment Process

In the event of an unfilled position on the Exec Board, StuCo advisors can appoint general StuCo representatives to that position. They will be agreed upon at the next StuCo meeting.
