Lexington County School District One

LEXINGTON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT ONE'S MISSION and VISION:

VISION

Empower each child to design the future.

MISSION

Our mission is to cultivate a caring community where ALL learners are extraordinary communicators, collaborators, creators and critical thinkers.

In Lexington County School District One, it is our goal to prepare graduates who are accomplished in 21st century skills and serve as a learning center for the entire community. We seek continuous improvement in overall achievement, such as achievement gaps, acceleration, and the effects of poverty, to accomplish this mission. Our aim is to maintain a strong graduation rate by providing students with skills they will need to be successful in today's world, including being proficient in multiple languages.

System Commitments

1. All students, regardless of circumstances, advance on time, prepared to graduate and ready to enter college, the military or industry with certification.
2. Teaching and learning develop power skills in all students.
3. Our schools are service-oriented centers of learning, committed to family and community partnerships.
4. Every adult will be equipped with the skills and resources necessary to advocate for and ensure the success of all students.

RIVER BLUFF HIGH SCHOOL

Vision

To create a community of learners where passionate educators and students are collectively challenged within a flexible environment to see personal achievement thrive, through character, leadership and growth mindset while contributing to both a local and global society.

Mission

Support students and teachers and all whom they influence collectively in their pursuit of excellence within a collaborative learning culture engaged in graduating citizen scholars committed to “building a better world”.

Motto

Work hard. Get smart. Do good.

Core Values

Personal Responsibility, Growth Mind-set, Collaboration and Relationships, Excellence, Citizenship

EL Education

National network of schools who see student achievement realized in three dimensions: Mastery of Knowledge and Skills, Character and High Quality Work; graduating all students as ethical people, effective learners and contributors to a better world.

EL Education Vision (Direction)

When students and teachers are engaged in work that is challenging, adventurous and meaningful, learning and achievement flourish.

EL Education Mission (Purpose)

To create classrooms where teachers can fulfill their highest aspirations and students achieve more than they think possible, becoming active contributors to building a better world.

EL Education Design Principles

These design principles express EL Education Schools’ philosophy of education and its core values. Drawn from the work of Outward Bound’s founder, Kurt Hahn, and other educational leaders, they shape school culture and provide a foundation for the moral purpose of schools.

1. The Primacy of Self-Discovery: Learning happens best with emotion, challenge and the requisite support. People discover their abilities, values, passions, and responsibilities in situations that offer adventure and the unexpected. In Expeditionary Learning schools, students undertake tasks that require perseverance, fitness, craftsmanship, imagination, self-discipline, and significant achievement. A teacher’s primary task is to help students overcome their fears and discover they can do more than they think they can.
2. The Having of Wonderful Ideas: Teaching in Expeditionary Learning schools fosters curiosity about the world by creating learning situations that provide something important to think about, time to experiment, and time to make sense of what is observed.

3. The Responsibility for Learning: Learning is both a personal process of discovery and a social activity. Everyone learns both individually and as part of a group. Every aspect of an Expeditionary Learning school encourages both children and adults to become increasingly responsible for directing their own personal and collective learning.
4. Empathy and Caring: Learning is fostered best in communities where students' and teachers' ideas are respected and where there is mutual trust. Learning groups are small in Expeditionary Learning schools with a caring adult looking after the progress and acting as an advocate for each child. Older students mentor younger ones, therefore students feel physically and emotionally safe.
5. Success and Failure: All students need to be successful if they are to build the confidence and capacity to take risks and meet increasingly difficult challenges. It is also important for students to learn from their failures, to persevere when things are hard, and to learn to turn disabilities into opportunities.
6. Collaboration and Competition: Individual development and group development are integrated so that the value of friendship, trust, and group action is clear. Students are encouraged to compete not against each other, but with their own personal best and with rigorous standards of excellence.
7. Diversity and Inclusion: Both diversity and inclusion increase the richness of ideas, creative power, problem-solving ability, and respect for others. In Expeditionary Learning schools, students investigate and value their different histories and talents as well as those of other communities and cultures. Schools and learning groups are heterogeneous.
8. The Natural World: A direct and respectful relationship with the natural world refreshes the human spirit and teaches the important ideas of recurring cycles and cause and effect. Students learn to become stewards of the Earth and of future generations.
9. Solitude and Reflection: Students and teachers need time alone to explore their own thoughts, make their own connections, and create their own ideas. They also need time to exchange their reflections with other students and with adults.
10. Service and Compassion: We are crew, not passengers. Students and teachers are strengthened by acts of consequential service to others, and one of an Expeditionary Learning school's primary functions is to prepare students with the attitudes and skills to learn from and be of service.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

River Bluff High School's courses are arranged so that students are heterogeneously grouped to maximize the social construction of meaning in an academically rigorous environment. Course offerings reflect our commitment to interdisciplinary connections between courses, and teachers utilize common instructional practices to support students' learning (including the active use of learning targets, checking for understanding throughout the class, intentional debriefs/summaries at the end of class, and regular homework that builds upon the day's lesson or prepares for the following day's work). Students practice new and developing skills through the workshop model of instruction, make real-world connections with our community through the use of experts and fieldwork, and are guided through curricular units that promote inquiry, rigor, and engagement. Curricular units in all courses are structured through the frameworks of learning expeditions, investigations, and projects.

River Bluff's Habits of Success align with Lexington County School District One's 8 Power Skills: Accountability, Critical Thinking, Communication, Interpersonal Skills, Integrity, Perseverance, Collaboration, Willingness to Take Risks. These Habits of Success are behaviors we believe are conducive to one's success in becoming an effective learner, an ethical person, and contributing to a better world.

HABITS OF SUCCESS (Core Values)

Work hard.

Personal Responsibility
Growth Mind-set
Collaboration and Relationships

Get smart.

Excellence

CREW

All students and teachers will be a part of CREW, which will direct the course of learning – literally taking the wheel. Just as crew on a ship, students will not just be “along for the ride.” They are responsible for where the journey leads. Through teamwork, students will not only grow as a learner but also as a person.

Students will be part of a 15-20 student CREW that will meet 5 days a week throughout the school year. The CREW experience will be supervised by a CREW leader. CREW leaders will facilitate daily activities but will not drive them. In CREW, all will have leadership opportunities as part of a team.

The purpose of CREW is to help develop life skills including confidence, responsibility, respect, honesty, communication, and personal and academic drive. It will provide students with a safe place to explore, share, create, make mistakes, reflect, learn, prepare, and celebrate. The small size of CREW will help students connect with their CREW leader and fellow classmates on a personal and positive level. Forming bonds and relationships will build community and guide overall academic success at River Bluff High School.

During CREW, students will work on:

- Building relationships
- Strengthening literacy
- Providing service
- Exploring adventure and fitness opportunities
- Preparing for college or post-secondary careers
- Handling school business

Students are not passengers; in CREW students are part of a family that will redefine what it means to be a learning community that truly supports and challenges one another at River Bluff High School.

At River Bluff, We Are CREW.

FLEXIBLE MODULAR (FLEX MOD) SCHEDULE

River Bluff's Innovative Flexible Modular (FLEX MOD) Schedule was updated in 2021-2022 to consist of a school day with 17 modules (mods). Each day of the week consists of combinations of the classes into 8 Paths of instruction to encompass the entire school day.

The schedule consists of a five-day cycle that repeats 36 times. Each course (1 credit) meets 210 minutes a week within one path distributed into one of two phases (A or B) of instruction meeting either three days (B Phase) a week or four days (A Phase) a week. The remaining mods of time within a student's schedule that is not scheduled into face-to-face instruction is Independent Learning Time (ILT). C1 and C2 within the middle band of our schedule are where students meet in their grade level CREWs.

Why Flex Mod?

Successful Outcomes for Students (Independent Learning Time - ILT)

- Trust is built by allowing students to make independent choices about academic work; students become self – directed decision makers
- Spirit of collaboration amongst peers and with teachers
- Access to (multiple) teachers in real-time during the school day
- Ability to complete some work during the time with access to teachers and peers
- Managing non-instructional appointments (counseling, iPad technology) without interrupting class time

Successful Outcomes for Teachers (Independent Learning Time - ILT)

- Trust is built by scheduling every teacher time to work with course-specific collaborative teams during the school day in schedule mods of collaborative planning
- Spirit of collaboration amongst peers within other departments
- Access to (multiple) students in real-time during the school day
- Managing non-instructional appointments (IEPs and 504s) without interrupting class time

The 2022-2023 schedule template can be found at the end of this document.

Independent Learning Time (ILT)

A leading objective in a flexibly scheduled high school is to offer opportunities to students for self-direction.

We believe that modular scheduling provides students with the opportunity to learn to make wise decisions about where to spend their unstructured time. The teachers and administrative staff feel most students are mature enough to use unstructured time properly and to accept the responsibilities that accompany this privilege.

Independent Learning Time refers to that time when students are not assigned to a classroom and when students themselves will direct the use of their time through selecting one of the options open to them.

Use time wisely.

Collaborate with teachers, classmates and other students.

Hold each other accountable.

Stay in designated areas. (Designated areas are Collaborative Commons, Learning Commons, Counseling Commons, River Café, Café 320 and other areas by appointment- art studios, computer or science labs, classrooms and work out areas)

Eating should only take place in River Cafe, Cafe 320, Collaborative Commons and/or the Courtyard.

There should not be any gathering of large groups on the academic wings. Academic wings should only be used as the extension of the classroom.

Structured Learning Time (SLT)

SLT is a support structure/place that selected students will report to after evaluating their past and current academic progress, needs and goals. SLT is placed on a student's schedule after recommendation by administration and/or school counselors. Students will report to SLT in order to work on academic needs and receive support. A staff member will help facilitate the learning and serve as a liaison between the student and the student's teachers.

There are different types of SLT for students at River Bluff. Content SLT is for students needing to engage in Credit Recovery and/or Initial Credit courses through our Edgenuity platform in Math, English, or Social Studies. ESOL SLT is for English Language Learners to engage in additional support structures. Finally, Restorative SLT is a support structure for students that need additional support in using personal responsibility to manage their time wisely during ILT. When a student shows improvement and maintains a level of expected performance, then their ILT time will gradually be added back to their schedule. It is the goal of Restorative SLT, for students to realize they will be held accountable for their education while learning proper academic and behavioral habits.

All SLT sessions will be part of the student's schedule and not showing up for the sessions will incur the same consequences as not going to any other class. Attendance will be taken for all scheduled SLT sessions and unexcused absences will be sent to the student's administrator for discipline.

STUDENT BEHAVIOR STANDARDS

The RBHS leadership team and faculty expect the behavior of students at River Bluff High School to reflect the educational goals of the school. No student has the right to interfere with the education of fellow students. It is the responsibility of each student to respect the rights and property of teachers, students, administrators, counselors and all others who are involved in the educational process. The leadership team and faculty expect all students to adhere to the Habits of Success and norms, as well as school and district policy for student behavior.

School-based restorative justice offers a sustainable, equitable, and respectful alternative to dealing with misbehavior, from minor infractions to violence. It is a proactive means of promoting a positive, healthy, and orderly school environment, where everyone involved learns and practices self-discipline, empathy, and accountability.

Lexington County School District One requires high school students to wear ID's at all times while they are at school, while they travel to and from school on regular school buses and for field trips.

The district purchases one ID for each student at the beginning of each year. ID's must be displayed in the middle of the chest and with the picture facing forward. ID's must not be altered in any way (Nothing on either side of the ID). If a student misplaces his/her ID or leaves it at home, that student must get a temporary ID from the Learning Commons before going to class. There is no charge for a temporary ID before school. Students will receive an ID violation if they wait to get a temporary ID after school starts unless a student has presented a tardy pass to school. If a student goes to class without his/her ID displayed or if the ID is in the student's book bag or pocket, the staff member will send the student to get a temporary ID and the student will be charged with an ID offense. Refusal to get a temporary ID as directed will result in suspension.

ACADEMIC HONOR CODE

Lexington County School District One encourages students to maintain high standards of academic integrity and honesty. In an effort to clarify expectations, the following list provides examples of unacceptable acts of cheating:

- Looking at someone else's quiz, test, or exam;
- Revealing items to someone who has not taken a quiz, test, or exam;
- Copying from others on assignments designated as independent work.
- Referring to unauthorized notes and materials during a quiz, test, or exam;
- Positioning your paper or technological device into viewing range of another student during a quiz, test, or exam;
- Using unauthorized technological devices to complete or disseminate answers during quiz, test, or exam. Using technological devices to secure work from another student's project;
- Obtaining an unauthorized copy of a quiz, test or exam;
- Plagiarizing a paper or using a paper written by another person (citation errors are handled during the writing process by classroom teachers) and plagiarizing work from another student's project; and
- Attempting to take an online assignment or assessment for another student or allowing another person to complete an online assignment or assessment for you.

Teachers and administrators treat cheating as a serious matter. Teachers will confer with the appropriate administrator to review the evidence of any misconduct.

Parents will be notified and a mandatory conference will be held with the student, parent or guardian, teacher, and administrator. Any behavioral consequence such as in-school suspension (ISS) will be explained at that time.

After the conference is held, the student will be required to complete an appropriate assignment/assessment. This work will be graded in lieu of the original assignment/assessment.

If the student does not complete the assignment/assessment by the due date, a zero will automatically be entered into the grade book. If the offense occurs during a reassessment opportunity, the reassessment score will be dropped and the original grade will be recorded.

The behavioral infraction of cheating will be documented through a discipline referral and noted in the student's discipline record. Behavioral consequences up to out-of-school suspension (OSS) for incidences of cheating will be administered at the discretion of the school-based administrator.

1st Offense: 1 Day Suspension
1 - 3 Days of Suspension after 1st Offense

LOCKERS

Lockers are the property of Lexington County School District One. All lockers will be emptied on the day following the last day of school. The school will not be responsible for items left in lockers. Lockers are subject to search at any time by the administration.

DELIVERIES TO STUDENTS

Florist and balloon deliveries will not be accepted for students. Food deliveries from parents and restaurants or commercial delivery services (i.e. UberEats, DoorDash, Postmates) will not be accepted.

VALUABLES

Money, purses or other valuables are not to be left at school, on the cafeteria tables, hallways, or in the lockers rooms during P.E., extracurricular practices or games. The school will not be responsible for money or other valuables left unattended during or after school hours.

LEARNING COMMONS

The RBHS Learning Commons is a place for reading, research, studying and collaborating. Hours are 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM Monday through Friday. Books may be checked out for a two-week period. Overdue fines are 10 cents per day. Damage fees will be charged. Lost books will be charged at the replacement value, with a minimum charge of $5.

MEDICATION POLICY

1. The Parent/Guardian of the student must request in writing that the student be given medication. Medication Forms can be found on the district website.

2. All medication should be brought to the school by the parent/guardian, (except for high school students), if a situation arises that the parent cannot bring the medication, the student should bring the medication to the health room first thing in the morning. All medications should be brought in the original container appropriately labeled by the pharmacy and/or health care provider.
 3. Students are only allowed to self carry life saving medications prescribed by a physician with orders and self carry consents in the nurse's office. The school supplies no medication. This includes Tylenol, Motrin, Aspirin, etc. All medications will be stored in a locked cabinet in the health room. A medication form signed by a parent is required for the nurse to administer any over the counter medication they provide. A physician must sign the medication form for any prescription medications to be dispensed. The prescription bottle and physician order must match. No more than a 1 month supply of control medication will be stored in the health room.
- See District Drug Policy for consequences.

ATTENDANCE

South Carolina law mandates that children 5 years old to 17 years old must attend school. The school year consists of 180 school days.

The district considers students present only when they are actually at school, on homebound instruction, or present at an activity authorized by the school such as field studies, athletic contests, music festivals, student conventions and similar activities.

Absences and Excuses

If absent, a student must present a written excuse signed by a parent, guardian, physician or other appropriate person within three days after returning to school. The excuse must include the date the excuse is written, date(s) of student's absence, reason for student's absence, telephone number where the parent/guardian may be reached and the required signature. Excuses that have been tampered or forged will count as unlawful absences and the student will be assigned three days OSS.

Parent/Legal guardian excuses (Parent Notes) for absences may be accepted for students to make up missed assignments; however, to assure course credit for students who have accumulated more than the allowable absences specified for the course duration, a doctor's excuse will be required for all absences beyond the allowable absences. The principal will require a student who has accumulated more than 5 absences in a semester course or 10 absences in a yearlong course to provide a doctor's excuse for all further absences in order to receive course credit. Principals have the authority to review absences in excess of five days in a semester course and to use their own discretion for follow up.

Students in grades 9-12 are allowed the following number of absences before losing course credit:

- 90-day classes 5 lawful/unlawful absences
- 180-day classes 10 lawful/unlawful absences

Excused Absences

These absences do not count against the days students are allowed to miss by state law:

- All students whose attendance in school endangers their health or the health of others, as determined by a physician.
- Students classified as Juniors receive one college visit, and Seniors are allowed two college visits during the year. A letter from a college/university representative on official college/university letterhead must be submitted to the Attendance Office within three days of the absence.
- Students who are chronically ill. A doctor's statement explaining that the student does not need to see a doctor every time the illness occurs must be turned into the attendance office. Once the statement is on file with the school, the parent/guardian can inform the doctor of the occurrence of the illness and the doctor can fax the Attendance Office the excuse or the original may be picked up from the doctor and given to the Attendance Office when the student returns to school. Schools do not accept faxes from parents.
- Students must keep medical or dental appointments. The student must see the doctor for the absence to be excused except in cases where the student has been determined to be chronically ill as explained above.
- Students who have an immediate family member who is seriously ill. A parent note showing that the family member is seriously ill must be turned into the attendance office.
- Students attending a funeral of an immediate family member. A parent note must be turned into the attendance office.
- Students participating in a recognized religious holiday of their faith.
- Students who have prior permission to participate in school-sponsored or school-approved activities.
- Students who have unusual or mitigating circumstances as determined by the school principal.

Lawful Absences

The following absences count against the days students are allowed to miss by state law but allow students to make up missed assignments:

- A written note from a parent/guardian.
- Illness of the student to the degree that his/her attendance in school would endanger his/her health or the health of others as documented in writing by parent/legal guardian within three school days after the student has returned to school; provided the number of classes or days missed does not exceed the allowable absences specified for the course duration.

Unlawful Absences

The following absences count against the days students are allowed to miss by state law and the district gives unexcused absences for:

- Students willfully absent from school/truant.
- Students absent without the knowledge of their parents/guardians/cutting school.
- Students suspended from school.

After three consecutive unexcused absences or after a total of five unexcused absences, the principal or designee will identify the reason(s) for the student's continued absence and will, with the student and parent/guardian, develop a Truancy Intervention Plan to improve that student's attendance.

If a student accumulates more than five unexcused absences in one semester, the student may be referred to a truancy prevention program or to court. Before a principal takes legal enforcement action, the principal will notify the parent/guardian and allow that parent/guardian to present information for appeal.

Truancy

In accordance with state law, all children between the ages of 5 and 17 are required to attend public or private school. Parents or guardians who do not wish to enroll their five-year-old child in kindergarten can sign a waiver. A child 5 to 17 years meets the definition of a truant when the child has three consecutive unlawful absences or a total of five unlawful absences.

SEARS (School Extension for At-Risk Students) Program

Lexington County School District One's SEARS program provides an attendance extension for high school students who receive a final grade of "F" due only to unexcused absences beyond the limit allowed for the course. To participate, the student must otherwise have a passing course grade.

Students are allowed to make up no more than two days of unlawful absences per semester. Students with excessive absences in the first semester must attend SEARS at the end of the first semester. Students with excessive absences second semester must attend SEARS at the end of the second semester. The cost of the program is $25 per session.

Procedure for Turning In Excuses for Absences

Excuses will be accepted in the Attendance Office before school, during ILT or after school. Students will not be allowed to miss instruction to turn in excuses.

Procedures for Signing Students In and Out of School

No student will be permitted to leave school during the school day unless a parent/guardian or other approved person on the student's emergency contact list comes to the school for the student or unless prior arrangements have been made. Parents/guardians must identify, in writing on the School Health Form distributed at registration, the individuals who have permission to sign their child out of school. The parent/guardian or other approved person must come to the office and sign the student out during school hours (the school is open at 7:30 AM). Picture identification is required. Schools do not accept incoming telephone calls, written notes or faxes for the purpose of dismissing a pupil from school early. Anyone not on the student's approved sign out list will not be allowed to sign any student out of school. Students who leave school without being properly signed out will be treated as cutting class. Students are not allowed to be signed out of school between 3:00 PM and 3:50M. Students must sign back in upon their return to campus during the regular school day.

Students must attend 2/3 of class to be counted present.

Ill or injured students must be signed out by an adult (parent/guardian or adult listed as emergency contact) in order to leave campus. Parent/guardian will sign student out through the nurse's office. In case of an emergency or extenuating circumstances, the principal will use his or her judgment in excusing a student.

Doctor/Dentist Appointment

The parent/guardian must sign students out. Students will not be allowed to sign themselves out of school, regardless of age or grade, to go to appointments. Parents may sign out students in the main office up to one week in advance of the appointment.

Tardies

The office assigns a tardy if the student is late to school or any class; tardy students report to the Attendance Office located in the Main Street to receive a Gator Pass.

Note: Being tardy to school with a parent note will count towards a detention if the student has exceeded their allotted amount of excuses. A tardy note serves only to notify the school that the parent is aware of the tardy, but it does not excuse the student from detention.

Failing to Sign In Upon Arrival at School

- 1st Offense:* Conference/Warning
 - 2nd Offense:* 1 Day Detention
 - 3rd Offense:* Detention/suspension
- Suspension for all instances beyond the third offense

Tardy to Class and School

 - 4th – 8th Offense per semester:* 1 Day Detention

Attendance Guidelines — Students Enrolled in the Online Learning Academy

Students who are enrolled in the Lexington One Online Learning Academy will have attendance concerns addressed with the LOOLA administration. Contact Chris Rabon for any additional information at (803)-821-1300.

Additional Attendance Information

Schools will continue to accept parent notes and excuses to document absence reasons. Schools can accept these excuses electronically.

If your child is experiencing symptoms associated with COVID-19, please contact your child's school nurse immediately. Absences associated with COVID-19 will be coded as SC-FLU with a descriptor of COVID-19. This is an excused absence. This code is used for the student who has/is suspected to have COVID-19.

Students Required to Quarantine

Some students in the Online Learning Academy participate in extracurricular activities at school. Students may be required to quarantine if they are in close contact with someone with a confirmed case of COVID-19. Your child's school will contact you if an exposure occurs at school.

If a close contact occurs outside of school, please keep your child at home. They should not participate in extracurricular activities. Contact your child's school nurse immediately.

Students will be marked present for all days they are in quarantine. If no assigned work is submitted by the due date established by the teacher, the student's attendance will be changed to absent (for the corresponding days).

Truancy regulations remain in effect.

LEAVING CAMPUS WITHOUT PERMISSION

River Bluff High School is a closed campus. Students may not leave campus without following sign out procedures during the school day, including during Independent Learning Time (ILT) or Structured Learning Time (SLT).

- 1st Offense:* Detention/Suspension with a warning about parking privileges
- 2nd Offense:* Suspension and loss of parking privileges for one month for student drivers
- 3rd Offense:* Suspension and loss of parking privileges for the semester for student drivers

MAKEUP WORK

In cases of excused absences, makeup work must be completed during the first five (5) school days after the student returns to school. The student must make arrangements for makeup work.

Teachers will assist students with makeup work as needed either before school, during independent learning time or after school.

Students that are absent may refer to their teacher's Schoology page for their assignments or request their assignments.

FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE

Final exams may not be given in advance of the final exam date and time unless the early exam is a part of the approved curriculum and is communicated in advance to the students and parents. The date and time of the Final Exam will be posted on Schoology near the end of the course.

A student may make up a Final Exam under the following circumstances:

- The absence is excused (illness with a doctor's note, death in the family, extenuating circumstances submitted in writing to and approved by the Principal or his designee).
- The make-up exam is taken on the make-up exam date or a later date as agreed upon by the administration, teacher and student.

Examples of absences that will not be considered excused include a conflict with a student's work schedule, vacation, and college visits.
