

Julie Painter was a National Board certified English teacher, a Theatre teacher, and an English/Theatre teacher during her first sixteen years in education with a one-year stint as an Education Specialist for the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce. She moved into administration as the English Language Arts Coordinator for School District Five of Lexington and Richland Counties before becoming the Academic Dean for Innovation at River Bluff High School, serving in that role for seven years. Mrs. Painter spent two years working at White Knoll High School as the Assistant Principal where she was named the high school South Carolina Assistant Principal of the Year for 2020, transitioning to her current position as the Principal at Pleasant Hill Middle School that summer (GO COUGARS!).

Mrs. Painter earned a Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Oregon (Go Ducks!), a Master of Arts in Teaching and a Master of Education, Educational Administration from the University of South Carolina.

She is a member of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD) and the South Carolina Association of School Administrators (SCASA).
