REGARDING: June 14, 2022 Board of Trustees Meeting

On Tuesday, June 14, 2022, the Lexington County School District One Board of Trustees holds a public hearing to present the third reading of the district's 2022–23 General Fund Operating Budget and to hear citizens' comments on the budget, as well as its regular monthly board meeting in the auditorium of Building One of Central Services auditorium located at 100 Tarrar Springs Road in Lexington, South Carolina.

The public hearing begins at 5 P.M. in the auditorium. Citizens wishing to address the Board of Trustees during the public hearing must sign up to speak between 4–5 P.M. During the public hearing, citizens may only speak on items related to the 2022–23 General Fund Operating Budget and must be present to sign up to speak.

At the conclusion of the public hearing, the board will begin its regular monthly meeting.

The board will promptly vote to enter executive session to discuss 2022–23 employment recommendations, receive legal advice in the case of Heim vs. Lexington County School District One, and for discussion regarding the development of security devices or personnel. The regular monthly board meeting will resume at 6 P.M. or upon immediate conclusion of executive session.

A second citizens' participation will be held during the regular board meeting for citizens wishing to address the Board of Trustees. Citizens must sign up to speak between 4:30–6 P.M. and must be present to sign up to speak.

The public may watch the public portion of the meeting at <https://www.youtube.com/c/LexingtonOne/live>. After the meeting, the district will follow its previously established process of posting a video of the meeting to its YouTube channel and its website.

We invite the public to attend and appreciate your assistance in making the public aware of this meeting.

Thank you for your help.
